Hello! First, congratulations on your engagement, and I am so thrilled that you have found your way to Intrigue. It is crazy to think that this lifestyle I have chosen is all due to fate. I started my career in the Marketing & Design industry where I found my love for the creative world. In 2007, I was asked by a client to plan their wedding and though I was reluctant, I said yes. The timeline given was only three short weeks, and in an entirely different city than I lived in. Although challenging, I LOVED every moment of it and knew there was no turning back. Intrigue was established the following year.

It's one of the greatest feelings to be a part of an event that will ultimately change someone's life. Having the opportunity to plan and design events for hundreds of guests is incredible, but the moment I love most is seeing our couple's reactions of pure joy and happiness.

That is when you know you have made their vision a reality.

Ashley joined our Intrigue family after moving from Manhattan where she studied at The Fashion Institute of Technology and began her career in the Bridal and Events industry.

Her passion for design stems from her experience working in one of New York City's last-standing bridal ateliers. She carries over her love for small details, memorable florals, and meaningful touches into our weddings that make each one unforgettable.

Our couples always inspire us to create innovative design concepts that speak to their style. We love incorporating imaginative and personalized touches that are purposeful and memorable. Our team has been designing weddings and creating unforgettable moments for over 15 years.

We will take you through the design process and discuss all the possibilities to create a cohesive, original design that represents the two of you.

our philosophy.

Our philosophy at Intrigue is to provide guidance and thoughtful direction throughout the planning and design process that will lead to a uniquely curated design for the two of you.

We're all about cultivating meaning and significance in every moment of your day, ensuring you and your guests will have memories to cherish forever.

Our event designers are dedicated to utilizing our creative knowledge to design a wedding that is a true representation of who you are. The smallest details can make the largest impact.

When describing our team, we always combine passion with efficiency, personality with originality, and strive for perfection while celebrating love.

the process

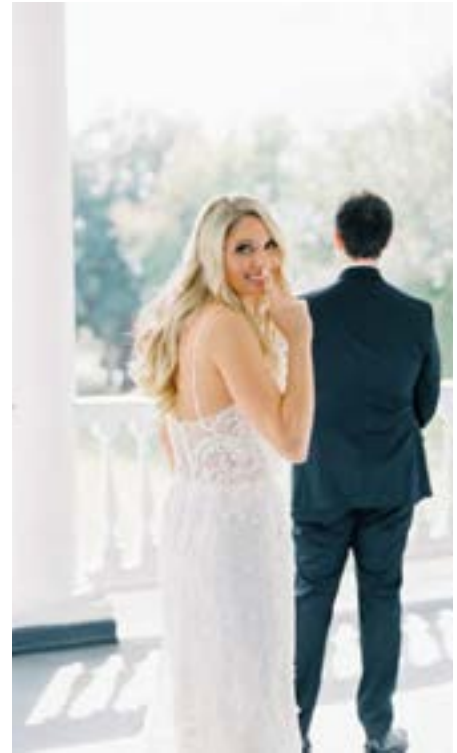

There are a million moving parts to think through when you are planning your wedding. As you decide on the perfect location, design concepts, vendors, guest list, budget, and FASHION, we are here to walk you through that planning process.

The options are truly endless, and our planning & design process allows us to organize your thoughts and align them with your must-haves to make your vision a reality.

As a destination wedding planning company, we draw inspiration from everywhere, and we are drawn to the love story of our couples.

getting to know you

How would you describe yourself in three words, and what do you consider must-haves for your wedding day? This gives us the insight we need to dive into your personality and style. From there, we are able to design a wedding that is a true representation of who you are as a couple.

services

Our full-service wedding planning & design packages are built to be customizable to fit the needs of our couples.

We will chat through the planning process with you to assist you in determining the services that are going to meet your needs, venue requirements, and budget.

We will be your support team throughout this experience and offer all the tools needed to make the process stress-free & fun.

With our online client planning portal, you will have access to ALL THE THINGS you need including a custom timeline, budget, design studio, checklist, vendor details, and so much more.

destination

Destination weddings are amazing for couples who are ready to celebrate with their guests in a unique location. Intrigue has traveled the world assisting our couples with finding the perfect venues.

With family and friends spread out across the country or world — why not travel? Creating memories in a new location is not only exciting but gives you a special place to go back to and reminisce.

Whether you've decided on a southern celebration in Charleston, a west coast adventure, or a romantic getaway in Lake Como, our team has you covered with every detail necessary to plan a destination wedding.

budgeting + planning + design

During the beginning stage of the planning & design process, we will chat through your vision and overall design concepts, must-haves, and how that fits into your overall budget.

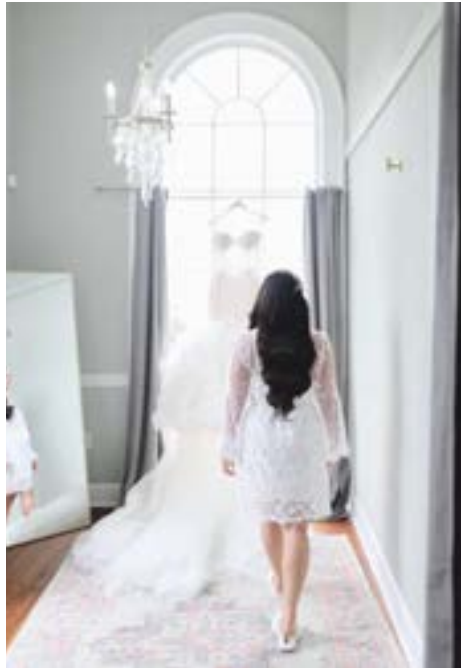

We have curated a vendor list of weathered professionals who we are confident will meet your unique style and design needs.

The faber house

The destination wedding dream for many newly engaged couples often includes historic streets, sandy beaches, and southern hospitality. Many come to fall in love with traditional homes or unconventional settings to host the big day.

This is why we wanted to create a beautiful bridal suite that represents all of what Charleston has to offer.

Intrigue is so excited to share our amazing bridal suite with all of the couples choosing Charleston as their wedding destination. We have over 1200 sqft of a fully furnished bridal suite that includes a private bridal dressing room, full kitchen, traditional Charleston Piazza, 52" flat-screen TV, beautiful outside courtyard, and so much more!

The boardroom

The Boardroom has been curated to be the perfect location for getting ready for any special event. This styled groomsmen lounge is located in the heart of downtown Charleston with a dedicated outdoor space and views of the Charleston harbor.

The Boardroom is furnished with a 65" flat-screen TV, gaming system, poker table, foosball, outdoor cigar terrace & so more. It also includes a kitchen, full bathroom and dressing room.

Michael Addison Bridal was curated with the concept that bridal could be traditionally modern. Michael Addison was dreamed up in 2020 by two sisters that wanted to offer an authentic REAL experience to every bride on her wedding day.

Founder, Chelsye Harp curated the Michael Addison Bridal line to be fun, unique, sexy, and mesmerizing. With 15 years of wedding design & planning experience, she saw a lag in the bridal shopping experience. With her love of yoga and rose, you will be surely met at the door with a cool lavender tower to refresh yourself, and champagne on ice.

As every event is uniquely designed and curated, so is the bridal line. Customizations are always welcomed and a wide collection of accessories are here to add flare to your overall wedding look.

Start your wedding weekend off in a little white dress from the Watters collection, then enjoy some tranquility wrapped in one of our silk satin loungewear pieces before stepping into your beautiful wedding gown.

From simple and sleek to bold and glamorous, Michael Addiosn offers a traditional modern perspective with all their bridal gowns.

Intrigue is amazing! If you want your dream wedding, and no stress the week of - these are your girls! They are the best wedding planners in the business and a dream to work with! They created the perfect vision for our wedding and sourced the right vendors! The week of our wedding they handled everything and I can honestly say I had ZERO stress!!! I can not say enough good things about Intrigue!! Weeks later friends and family are still calling to say its the best wedding they have ever been too!

WOW, is my first word for this incredible team. My wife and I were planning a Charleston wedding from Nashville, and they made everything so easy for us. We had mishaps close to our wedding day with the caterers, and they found a whole new catering team within budget. They were patient with all my questions and preferences. We felt heard, supported, and loved by Chelsye which was such a gift to us. I have been a part of many weddings, and I have never encountered the organization and personal aspect that this team provides from the first meeting through the wedding day.

Team Intrigue- we love you!!

It's rare to say you've had a working relationship with your wedding planner for 4 years. Even rarer to say they've helped you plan then replan your big day 3 times. Probably the rarest to say they navigated helping multiple couples simultaneously hold on to the dream of their perfect day amidst a global pandemic. Chelsye and the Intrigue team are real life fairy godmothers, superheroes, mind readers, and design visionaries. From our originally planned romantic garden wedding to our final and flawless bohemian chic Indian-American fusion wedding, Chelsye listened to exactly what we wanted and supported our various reveries. Ashley joined our planning endeavors a few months before the wedding, completely understood our design, and connected us with some amazing vendors that were instrumental to our aesthetic. The feeling of exhaustion and energy and hope and fear that come with waiting 4 years for a single momentous day was something I'll never forget. All of these emotions were calmed, in everyone, with Chelsye present. I've never experienced a more complete, pure, and beautiful day in my life. The decor for both the ceremony and reception was breathtaking. Not only was it more dazzling than we could have imagined, Chelsye surprised us with statement rattan lighting and lounge the day of our wedding to make our big moment even more special. No detail went missed- even when wedding crashers entered the reception. We heard the next day that Chelsye caught them and had them removed. Again, superhero. Our families talk about our wedding and Chelsye in the same breath almost a year later. With awe. With joy. With love. We feel that and 4x more of everything positive for Chelsye and her team at Intrigue Design & Events.

The Intrigue Design team is amazing!
They know weddings and specifically weddings in Charleston and the associated vendor community. They were very patient with us, listened to our ideas, and helped us execute a wedding (from DC) that was flawless!! Just beautifully done. We had some unique African and African American customs that they took to heart and helped us make it all happen. Love them and can't say enough about the joyous and beautiful wedding that they pulled off!

If you are looking for a wedding planner and unsure where to start, look no further than Intrigue! I am from CT, so having a destination wedding in Charleston, I was worried about the logistics, not knowing local vendors, and just being completely overwhelmed. From the moment Chelsye and I spoke, I knew she was the planner for me. We instantly clicked and as soon as I got off the phone I said to my husband (fiance at the time), I just found our planner! From our initial conversation, Chelsye was so friendly, and incredibly knowledgeable, and you could tell her passion and love for what she does. Chelsye and Ashley are a dynamic duo and truly are the A+ team. From coming down to Charleston to do food tastings and vendor meetings, our many zooms/phone calls, and their ability to make me feel calm when I would start to get stressed, they were there for it all. Chelsye has an eye for design that is so incredible and they truly brought my vision to life more than I could have ever imagined. We had our dream wedding and I can confidently say it would not have been possible without Chelsye and Ashley. I am lucky enough to now call them lifelong friends and joke with them that they are never getting rid of me!

Tara + Garrett

The Intrigue team is so professional and knowledgeable about weddings in Charleston, which was important to us for our DESTINATION wedding. Intrigue made the process less stressful, and I honestly don't know how people plan weddings without help! What made our day even more stressful was that hurricane Ian was hitting on our wedding day, so we had to make lots of last-minute changes, and it would have been a disaster without Chelsye. Can't recommend Intrigue enough!

Rachel + Michael

Honestly cannot say enough great things about the team at Intrigue. We're beyond grateful for them and how much they helped us with anything and everything we needed from start to finish. They are so incredibly thoughtful and talented, and such amazing people. We couldn't be happier with our decision to work with them for our big day. We love them and would absolutely recommend them without hesitation!!
